

BEACON

YEAR AT A GLANCE 2016-2017

BEACON BY THE NUMBERS

75	Students impacted by our literacy program at Hackett
70+	Gingerbread houses decorated
54	Yards of ribbon used in Pride Sunday celebration
335	Visits to community art events
25%	Percentage of our income provided by plate giving/individual donors

HIGHLIGHTS

Facilitating relationship-building within families and between neighbors at quarterly art events

Listening to the creativity of our local Hackett Elementary students as they wrote and shared their stories

Creating community art installations at Christmas and Easter

Beginning the process of a building feasibility study with the Community Design Collaborative, including a wonderful community-wide meeting in May

Sending co-founder Rev. Karen Rohrer to an exciting position at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary as the director of the Church Planting Initiative

Celebrating Rev. Hannah Quick's ordination to her work at Beacon

Welcoming new members to Beacon via baptism and transfer

As we look toward this next season of the Beacon adventure, we are excited to continue to explore the future of our building use, launch our resident at a new worshipping community elsewhere in Philadelphia, adapt our programming to the changing needs of our neighborhood, and continue to offer a wide welcome through worship and programming.
